

Two Elimination Plans For Broadway Crossing

New York Central Railroad Engineers Submit Them at Hearing Here—Estimate Construction Cost for Depressing Entire Roadway at $376,700 — Depressing Part of Roadway Would Cost $392,200—Property Damages Not Included.

Two schemes were submitted by the New York Central Railroad engineers today at a hearing before the Public Service Commission in relation to the elimination of the Broadway crossing. Both were for the depression of the roadway under the railroad tracks. One scheme provides for the depression of the entire roadway under the tracks while the other plan provides for the depression of a portion of the roadway under the tracks and leaving a slice of Broadway to give access to the present business properties.

Scheme "A" provides for a high level roadway on the east or station side of Broadway. On the west side the property taking would be the same as in scheme "A" but the property taking would be limited to one side of the street.

Scheme "B" provides for two 20-foot roadways with columns in the subway as in the other scheme, an eight-foot walk on the west side of Broadway at low level through the subway and an eight-foot walk on the east side of Broadway at the present street or high level. The high level roadway at the same level as Broadway at present would run on the east side of Broadway and would be 24 feet wide. It would end at Railroad

The plan to depress the railroad tracks was considered not feasible. The railroad engineers claiming the plan would be far too expensive and in addition it would eliminate the access to factories located along the tracks of depression and thereby cause great loss to the city.

Estimate Cost of Construction.

and submit a scheme for the proposition. At the last hearing it suggested that the proposition pressing the railroad tracks be into, the last hearing the railroad made a survey and prepared two plans of the Broadway elimination, which were presented to the commission for consideration.

Plan to Depress Street

This would be a straight elimination of the tracks maintaining the present 57 foot width of Broadway. This would give a 38 foot roadway under the tracks on Broadway, a 20 foot high level roadway and ample sidewalk space without taking much additional space.

Objections to Depressing Tracks.
In order to depress the tracks the railroad claims it would have to start in a mile north of Flatbush avenue crossing and cut riders for two 24 foot roadways center columns in the subway. It is allowed for the columns. There are two 12 foot walks provided with the depression and the grade.

This would also make the present Ulster & Delaware connection unavailable and would to maintain the adjacent present sidings to several factories. There would have to be a 26 foot depression and the cost and damage to industries would make the proposition not feasible.

In order to make a study of the maps and plans and to give the State Department of Public Works a chance to secure estimates on proposed

Merchants Protest Advance

The Kingston (Upper) Business Men's Association, have been advised that the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation has filed with your body certain increases in the electric rates to be effective July 15, 1928.

At the meeting of the business men and property owners of the City of Kingston, most emphatically protest against the approval of these or any other increases in rates for electricity in this city at this time for the following reasons:

1. The above mentioned Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation did publicly announce reductions in rates because of economies, etc.

2. That at this time to advance in rates is justified by either increased costs of operation, raw material, maintenance or overhead or any other reason except an unwarranted desire to increase revenues at the expense of the public.

3. That before any increase in rates become effective in this district, a general and complete hearing on the entire subject of rate revisions and rate making as applied to this company be held before your honorable body to determine just what rates shall be considered fair and equitable for all classes of consumers.

1. We hereby request that your body direct an order to said company requiring it to continue to serve all consumers who purchased electric current under the aforesaid lighting rate at the rates in effect prior to July 15, 1928, pending the determination of just and equitable rates by your body.

STONE RIDGE

Stone Ridge, July 26.—Several people from here attended the ordination and installation service of the Rev. George Gosselink at Accord on Tuesday evening.

The choir of the Reformed Church will meet at the parsonage on Thursday evening for practice at 7:30 o'clock.

Members of the Reformed Church are reminded of the missionary festival to be held at Forsyth Park, Kingston, on Wednesday of this coming week. The fest is sponsored by the Classes of Ulster in honor of Dr. James Cantline. Final arrangements are about completed to give the missionary brother a real send-off as he is about to resume his work in the United Mission of Mesopotamia. A rousing gospel song service will open the meeting at 10:30 o'clock and will be followed with mission talks. At 12 o'clock all will adjourn for lunch and at 1:30 o'clock the meeting will again be resumed. There will be refreshments where refreshments may be purchased. The afternoon meeting will be adjourned in time for those who have chores at home. All asked to come and bring friends. Dr. L. I. Chamberlain, who is secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, will speak as well as the Rev. Henry Slurter, pastor of the Second Reformed Church of Paterson, N. J., who at one time worked among the Indians in Oklahoma, besides two local men.

Services at the Reformed Church were resumed on Sunday last after a brief two weeks' vacation. The pastor, the Rev. C. Van Tol, will preach at 10:30 o'clock on "Our Christian Obligation." The Sunday school will meet at 11:45 under the direction of L. D. Sahler and the Men's Bible Class will convene at the same time. C. E. at 7 o'clock will be a leadership meeting. The topic is "Appreciating Our Immigrant Neighbors." Community service will take place at 8 o'clock with the Rev. C. Van Tol in charge. He has chosen as his theme "Perilous Pitfalls."

The Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Church will hold their annual fair in the very near future. August 15-18 are the dates. Fancy articles and food stuffs will be on sale.

COTTICKILL

Cottickill, July 26.—There was a good attendance at the Reformed Sunday school on July 22, also at the church service following. Sunday school on July 29 at 2 o'clock, daylight saving time. Visitors and new scholars are always welcome. Classes for all ages in charge of competent teachers.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed Church will hold its regular monthly meeting in the church hall on Thursday, August 2, at 2 o'clock, daylight saving time. A good attendance is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

Sunday, July 23, at the regular session of the Reformed Sunday school, full details of the Sunday school picnic will be announced, also the date on which same will be held.

There are a number of city guests in the village. The recent hot weather has caused many from the large cities to seek relief in the country.

Mrs. Rowena Van Wageningen, who has been a patient at the Sahler Sanitarium at Kingston for the past four weeks, is improving satisfactorily. Her many friends hope she will soon be able to return to her home.

PLUTARCH

Plutarch, July 26.—Parker Bendictine and August Rasmussen of Staten Island spent the week end at Howard Mackey's.

Oscar Parliaman and wife of New Paltz called on Fred Palmatier and family Sunday evening.

Harry Albertson and family of Highland spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Estella Albertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parks of Poughkeepsie and Mrs. Mary E. Townsend of Highland spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mackey.

Alexander Stmatz is home for two weeks getting his hay gathered. George Purleigh purchased a car last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Nostrand and son, Roland, of Hamburg, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Van Nostrand and daughter, Florence, of Ohioville spent Sunday with John Van Nostrand and family.

At the end of a hot and lazy summer day...

AS THE sun goes down and the shadows begin to creep across the veranda, a cool breeze stirs and you welcome the evening. And to accompany the promise of the coolness to come, pour yourself a glass of ice-cold "Canada Dry."

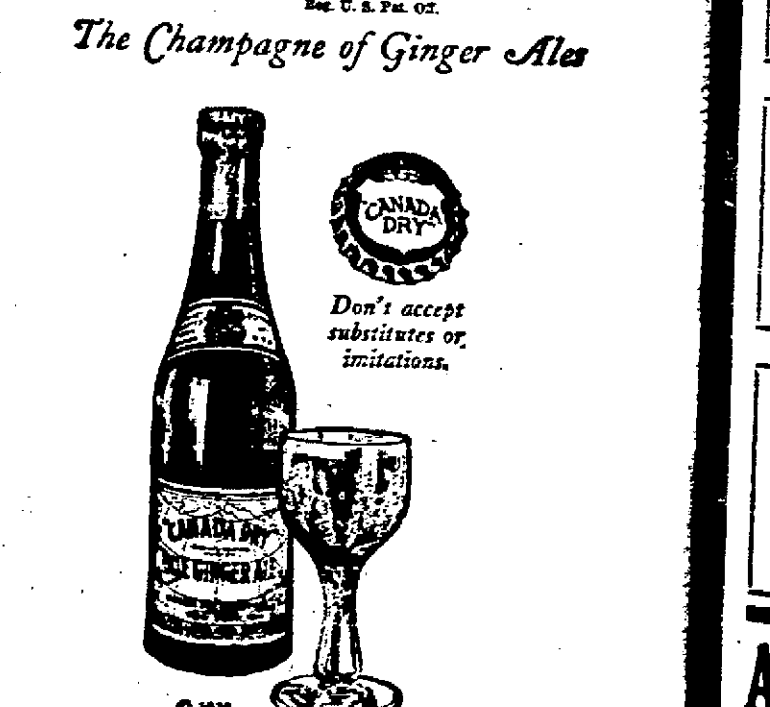

It sparkles and cheers you from its bubbling crystal depths. Savor its bouquet as you sip it. Feel its tingle of goodness and refreshing taste on your tongue. And know that you are drinking a real ginger ale made from real Jamaica ginger.

You'll never know how good a ginger ale can be until you taste this delicious beverage. Dry. Mellow. Full-bodied. With a subtle gingery taste and a secret method of carbonation which enables it to retain its sparkle long after the bottle is opened. Pure. Containing no capicum (red pepper) and therefore producing no bite, no unpleasant after-effect.

"Canada Dry"—a cooling, refreshing beverage at the end of a summer day!

Recreational programs will feature the evening sessions.

NEW YORK RESERVE OFFICERS DESIGNATED

Major Anastasio C. M. Azoy, author of the new "Reserve Officers' Handbook," was designated by Major-General Hanson E. Ely, commanding the Second Corps Area, Wednesday to head New York Reserve officers who will go into camp with the 530th Coast Artillery, U. S. Army Reserve, at Fort Totten, near Whitestone, Long Island, August 5.

According to Army orders, the 530th will receive instruction in anti-aircraft artillery maneuvers under Regular Army officers of the 62nd U. S. Regiment, C. A. C., for two weeks ending August 18. Part of their field training will be to command troops of the 62nd in simulated warfare against "enemy" air-rafters.

Named with Major Azoy yesterday were eleven other New Yorkers. They were Captain Eugene M. Vigneron, of 260 11th avenue, New York city; First Lieut. Edward A. Cuddy, of 2874 Grand Concourse, Bronx; John J. Mahoney, of 5531 123rd street, Richmond Hill, L. I.; Arthur E. McClaren, of 233 Seward place, Schenectady, N. Y.; Carl J. Nim, of 190 King street, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Walter P. Applarius, of 2124 Elus avenue, Bronx, N. Y., and Second Lieut. John R. Parnis, of 323 East 43rd street, New York city; Howard W. Garbe, of 463 West street, New York city; Winfield S. Halton, of 2101 Mrs. Court, Brooklyn, N. Y.; William V. Owen, of 28 Tremaine avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.; and Alfred J. Schmitt, of 144 Raymond street, Rockville Center, N. Y.

"Clean" Milk

While a rigid application of the definition of the word "clean" would exclude milk which contains foreign matter or any bacteria whatever, for ordinary purposes we may understand that clean milk is milk of good flavor from healthy cows, that is free from dirt and contains only a small number of bacteria, none of which is harmful.

Paper From Wood Pulp

Wood pulp began to attract attention as a paper material about 60 years ago. This use has increased rapidly from year to year, and it is one of the most important to which wood is put.

STUDEBAKER'S Ball Bearing Spring "Shackles"

In these new cars a patented invention at last solves a problem that has long baffled automotive engineers.

Every motorist knows the importance of spring shackles—those joints or hinges which form the connecting link between body and axles. Engineers have sought to reduce friction to a minimum at these vital joints—to make them flexible yet firm and uniform in action—to make them noiseless—to reduce the necessity for frequent lubrication. All these objectives have now been attained in Studebaker cars.

So revolutionary is this sensational innovation that the word "shackles," with its implication of restricted movement, is no longer applicable. The incessant action and reaction between body and axles is now carried by 172 steel balls rolling in lubricant—no binding, no squeaks, no rattles, no sideway. Instead, smooth, silent resiliency, an undeviating uniformity of action and an enduring buoyancy that will keep your Studebaker young.

In place of complicated centralized systems for oiling and greasing, each ball bearing spring "shackle" contains, sealed within it, ample lubricant to last for more than twenty thousand miles.

Come ride in a new Studebaker today. Thrill to its champion performance. See rare new beauty of line and color. Then compare Studebaker's new low One-Price prices—the triumph of 76 years' manufacturing experience!

THE NEW YORK STATE
FAIR AND THE FARMER

By BERNE A. PYRKE,
Commissioner,
Department of Agriculture and Markets.

The farmers of the Empire State have an unusual opportunity for professional improvement in the annual exposition of the New York State Fair, Syracuse, August 27 to September 1. While New York State has, during the past seventy-five years, had an industrial development of striking proportions, the State Fair has remained true to the fundamental purpose of an educational institution to spread knowledge along agricultural lines.

And there has never been a time during the eighty-eight years of its existence when the farmers of New York State have had greater need than now for the information and the impulses toward better farming which the State Fair is in a position to offer. Almost without exception, all business, both in this country and in the world at large, is on a highly competitive basis, and this is especially true of agriculture. The New York State farmer is engaged in a friendly but most intense competition with other farmers in neighboring states of New Jersey and Pennsylvania, in the nearby states of the Mississippi Valley, in the more remote states of the Pacific Coast and in foreign lands as well, including Canada, Argentina, Denmark and even far-away Australia and New Zealand. To hold his own in the face of this eager competition, the New York State farmer must have the best possible information as to varieties of seeds, cultural methods, improved farm machinery, and the thousand and one items of agricultural lore with which a farmer in this age must be fortified.

The New York State Fair is peculiarly well equipped to furnish the visiting farmer with the wide range of information along these many lines which the up-to-date farmer of New York State is earnestly seeking.

EMPIRE STATE
sets a fast pace

TEN years ago, only 19 families out of every 100 in the Empire State had a telephone. Today, 44 families out of every 100 have telephones in their homes.

What about twenty years hence? Probably more than 70 families out of every 100 will have this service, which is so essential to public convenience and comfort.

Daily, hourly, many new subscribers are being added. And every day the alert public finds new ways in which the telephone can save time and money. The pace of progress requires that the readiest and fastest means of communication be used. To supply the people of this state with adequate and dependable telephone service, requires not merely that we keep pace with their progress but actually keep ahead of it.

This is a great responsibility and we accept it as a public trust. Service so conceived and rendered is a vital part of the State's continued progress and prosperity.

Bicycle Is Main Vehicle

for Holland's Population

Leyden, Holland.—Bicycles are more frequent in Holland than automobiles in the United States. There is a "rijtuig," or bike, to every 2½ inhabitants. In a university town like Leyden virtually every student, male or female, owns a wheel.

The great popularity of the bicycle is attributable to the fact that there are practically no hills in Holland. The importance of the bicycle is recognized by the authorities in that they provide separate "rijtuig pads" or bicycle roads running parallel to the automobile and horse-drawn vehicle roads.

The pedestrian in Holland must take far greater care not to be run over by a bicycle than by an automobile.

Woman Scents Thieves

by Scent They Stole

Berlin.—Three bold gentlemen burglars, their pockets bulging with booty, were leisurely descending the staircase of an apartment house in the Berlin suburb of Steglitz one night when a couple, occupants of the apartment just rifled, came walking up.

The thieves excited no suspicion until the wife sniffed the air. "Why that's my own scent," she exclaimed. Then the men started to run. On being caught they confessed having in the course of their operations liberally dosed themselves from the scent bottles in the woman's boudoir.

Live Tortoises Worn

by Paris Women

Paris.—Enamored and bewitched tortoises are being sold at $3 apiece in one of the big department stores of Paris. The little animals are alive and there is a large demand for them to cause the latest decree of the censorships is that the tortoise brings luck.

A painter goes over the back of the tortoise with a fine brush putting on highly colored tints. He is followed by another artist, who places multi-colored pieces of glass resembling precious stones all over the animal's armor. The tortoise is naturally lazy, and once he is fixed to a lady's bag or attached to a fur neckpiece he stays there.

ACT WILL UNITE ALIEN FAMILIES

Preference and Nonquota Provisions of Immigration Law Are Modified.

Washington.—Four years' clamor in behalf of thousands of alien families separated because of restrictions in the 1924 immigration act, recently was answered when an amendment, passed during the last session of congress to modify the preference and nonquota provisions of the law, became effective.

Under the new regulations, one-half of each of the quotas now allocated to the various countries, is to be reserved for the parents of American citizens, husbands of American citizens where the marriages took place after May 31 last, and farmers. The second half of each quota will be reserved for the wives and unmarried children under twenty-one years of age lawfully admitted aliens.

Serves Double Purpose.
The new preference provision serves a double purpose in that it not only hastens the reunion of long divided families by materially shortening the waiting time of persons entitled to preference, but it also serves to defer, in many cases indefinitely, the immigration of those whose admission to the United States would mean the planting of new seed in the country. Brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and aliens of no relationship whatever are definitely set aside in favor of the wives and minor children of those already here, who have become naturalized citizens or have signified their intention of becoming citizens.

Gives Nonquota Status.
Under the original law, exemption or nonquota status was available only to the wives and unmarried children under eighteen years of age of citizens of the United States, while the new law will give nonquota status to American born women who lost their citizenship by marriage to an alien prior to September 22, 1922, and who since have been widowed. This also applies to husbands of American women citizens if married before June 1, 1923, and to the wives and unmarried children under twenty-one years of age of American citizens.

"The whole quota, if demand therefore exists," Representative Johnson (Rep., Wash.) chairman of the house immigration committee, declared, "is to be made up of those on whose account alien organizations in the United States have been asking relief since the act of 1924 was put on the statute books."

Called Restrictionist Act.
"I am sure it will be recognized immediately that the new act is a distinctly restrictionist measure. When we give preference to the wives and minor children of aliens we expedite their immigration. Once here, they are not available to come in nonquota status after their husbands or fathers acquire citizenship."

"This means eventually a lessening of the total of nonquota admissions. Further, the deferment of brothers, sisters, and other relatives means the postponement of the day when newcomers plead for admission of another crop of wives and minor children, either as preference or nonquota cases."

"The problem of immigration today is not the allocation of the European quotas, either among nationalities or among classes of relationship, but the lessening of nonquota admissions. This is emphasized when we consider the thousands entering the United States across our southern border from Mexico, all of whom come exempt from quota restriction."

Ten Year Immigration Figures.
The effects of four years of restricted immigration and the necessity for extension of the quota system to western hemisphere immigration are graphically illustrated in tables and analysis recently inserted in the congressional record by Representative Holaday (Rep., Ill.), a member of the house immigration committee.

According to the tables, the number of immigrants admitted to the United States from 1921 in ten year periods, is as follows:

1921-20	143,433
1921-20	599,125
1921-20	1,652,275
1921-20	2,371,086
1921-20	2,372,258
1921-20	2,372,101
1921-20	5,216,632
1921-20	3,487,564
1921-20	8,725,246
1921-20	8,725,311
1921-20	2,344,599
1921-20	194,214
1921-20	204,455
1921-20	235,175
1921-20	220,000

"The net immigration gain in foreign born population for 1924, the last year preceding the enactment of the 1924 immigration law was 630,107," declared Mr. Holaday, "while for the following three years under the operation of the law the average net gain in foreign born population has been 230,234. If we take into account the average death rate and the number deported, we find that the net gain in foreign born population is about 100,000 annually instead of 1,000,000 annually as it was in 1913 and 1914."

No Bar to Mexicans.
"An analysis of the 223,179 immigrant aliens admitted during 1927 shows that 182,874 came from European or other countries under quota restrictions while 40,305 came from Canada and 6,021 came from Mexico, to which the quota system does not apply."

"Immigration from Canada presents no difficult problems but the character of the immigrants entering from Mexico presents a problem, the successful solution of which may be perhaps effected only by extending the provision of quota law to Mexico."

"My own opinion," declared Mr. Johnson, "resulting from his committee's successful efforts last session to agree upon measures to regulate both Mexican and Canadian immigration, is that sooner or later a limitation upon western hemisphere immigration is inevitable. The problem is to find an appropriate, fair and equitable basis upon which to build it. In this, as in every other legislative proposition, we want to employ a rule of reason which will do no one, citizen or alien, irreparable injury, but will work to the advantage of the people of the United States, tending to homogeneity, and advancing the interests of those who labor with their hands."

Mothers of Two Dead in Civil War Living

Washington.—Two mothers of Civil war soldiers are still living, the interior department announces, the son of one of them having died in Washington during the memorable conflict. It is a curious coincidence that both women bear the same Christian name, which is an unusual one.

Mrs. Samantha H. Burton, now ninety-seven, was the mother of Clinton H. Burton, who enlisted at sixteen in February, 1864. He was a private in Company 11 of the Eighth Illinois cavalry. Four months after his enlistment he died of typhoid fever in Camp Relief hospital in the District of Columbia. His mother, who lives in McHenry, Ill., where her son was born eighty years ago, draws a monthly allowance from the pension bureau.

The other mother of a Civil war soldier is a colored woman, Mrs. Samantha Farrer, who lives in Athens, Ala. Her son, Henry Farrer, was a private in Company F, One Hundred Tenth colored infantry. He was taken prisoner at Athens, Ala., in September, 1864, and died in a Confederate prison in January, 1865, at Mobile, of a disease contracted in the line of duty.

Back to Methuselah

A message from Madrid, Spain, states that a happy family of centenarians has been discovered. The mother is aged one hundred and twenty-seven and her five sons range from one hundred and eleven to one hundred and five. According to these figures the mother must have been only fifteen when her eldest son was born. It was further stated that all the sons are at work; doubtless they are the sole support of their aged mother.

Electricity—Vital Factor In Regional Development

More and more does modern community life in America depend upon electricity.

For not only has it become a necessity in the up-to-date home, but in industry, in municipal undertakings, and in agricultural and rural pursuits, it is fast becoming the one indispensable servant of progress and prosperity.

The communities of the Central Hudson Region are served by a modern interconnected electric power system, which furnishes, uniformly throughout the region, dependable and continuous electric service. Moreover, its power resources are ample, not only for the needs of the region today, but also for the greater needs of tomorrow.

Thus can the Central Hudson Region plan with certainty to move forward. It can build its homes, develop its communities, expand its industries and increase the scope of its varied activities, secure in the knowledge that, no matter how great becomes its demand for electric power, it can be met.

You don't know the half of this HUDSON

Performance that reaches thrilling new limits!
Smoothness that sets a new mark in motordom!
Gas efficiency that alters all previous standards!

Even you, who own and admire Hudson Super-Sixes of previous issue, can have no conception of the superlative finest and quality expressed, both mechanically and in body beauty, of the great Hudsons of today.

The almost universal trend to the high-compression motor only serves to emphasize the exclusive method, advantages and results achieved by the Hudson Super-Six in this development.

While conventional types depend upon special, costlier fuels to minimize roughness, the Hudson design uses any gasoline, delivering the extra power with the elastic smoothness and torque of a steam engine.

Combined with the Super-Six principle this new invention makes Hudson the most powerful and economical car per pound weight in the world.

A single ride will explain why this has been the most enthusiastically accepted Hudson ever built.

Transparent Vellies Lead Them-

Evening Color Range.

New York fashion as to whether or not the velvet will ever return to favor again brings up the interesting fact that they not only may, but have arrived for evening wear. While it is true that many are long to see the velvet, there are an astounding number of period frocks of the type indicated being worn, and not always by the younger set by any means.

The quality of the most desirable velvets makes it possible to pleat them. This is a development of some interest, and introduces a new trimming factor for the velvet gown.
While the trend in satins is toward heavier weaves, that in velvet is for the so-called transparent varieties.
It is true that one may more easily pleat or manipulate velvet than satin. Satins are being draped, and some of the more regal ones are em-brothered or woven with metal. It seems to be generally apparent also that satins incline toward self trimming, while other materials not excepting velvet, are used in con-

Corsets for Traveling
Are Easily Laundered

Some of the new corsets are especially useful for traveling because they are so easily laundered. One garment for evening wear is made with a silk girle and lace top. Another girle resembles a step-in but has a five-inch side opening, and is made of wide satin ribbon with elastic hip sections. For active sports wear there are a few new step-ins made of woven elastic, with and without side hipings. These lacings are only about four inches long and start at the top of the corset.

For the large figure there are new corsets with front clasps and front lacings about an inch to one side of the clasp. These corsets are fitted to extend only a short way above the normal waistline, and have extra elastic bandings over the hips to insure a smooth, continuous line from the waist to the thighs.

Brassieres and bandeaux are now to be found in many styles and materials and made to suit the requirements of evening clothes, sports costumes and daytime apparel. When an afternoon dress is worn that has a deep neckline, requiring a bit of lace, one of the new bandeaux with a plain net inset may be worn. These are made of white, flesh and cerise net and fit snugly, avoiding the trouble that ordinarily arises when separate pieces of lace are worn, which have to be either pinned or sewn in place. By wearing this type of bandeau the pla-may be placed to best advantage and the neckline properly adjusted without causing an undue strain on other parts of the garment.

Under sheer frocks for either afternoon or evening the new lace brassieres are very desirable, for they fit the figure snugly and may be had without straps. Some are made of lace and crepe de chine, others entirely of lace with a net foundation.

For wear about the country club with the semisports type of dress there are new open-mesh silk stockings in pale shades. These stockings are to be had either plain or with clecks, both being equally stylish.

New Heels in Hosiery
Incline Toward Skyline

New heels in hosiery are more and more inclined toward the skyline effect.
This ever-flattering and slenderizing pointed heel is being almost universally adopted and is seen in quite as many variations and versions as there are manufacturers. A recent addition to this type of heel in stockings is made on a jacquard machine and shows an attractive irregular line.
Whatever the style, the pointed heel gives a pleasant effect of sophisticated slimness.

Point top hosiery has a strong appeal to the fastidious woman. This added touch of daintiness is just one of those unimportant trifles which are sought in the new elegance of modern dress.

Pink Is Among Midsummer
Colors That Are Liked

For a midsummer color pink is always pleasing and, as always, is employed by several of the designers.
Philippe et Gaston use it in a sweater blouse of angora, a material so very soft and woolly that it is called "rab-bit's wool." Flatteringly the tender pinkness of this sweater was interrupted at intervals by stripes of gray and dull blue and the pink crepe de chine skirt was box-plaited and bordered in black. The note was repeated in the black banding about the pink sailor collar, which was pulled out over the sweater to intimate that a blouse of the pink crepe de chine was being worn under it.

ination. Lace comes to mind as the foremost favorite for the supplementary material.

A close observer has come to the interesting conclusion that some of the smartest satin dinner gowns are identical with those for afternoon wear, with the interesting, and of course, important omission of sleeves. Both for afternoon and night wear hems are uneven in these types with a natural tendency in evening collections to emphasize this detail.

Those of you who are searching for the unusual in color for the midsummer dance frock will do well to make an immediate selection of either yellow or orchid. Both of these colors are worn abroad, and are regarded there as the newest color note, with the possible exception of blue.

Card-Playing Expression

The expression "the game's not worth the candle" arose when candles were expensive and card-playing for money was prevalent. Small stakes meant that the illumination came at more than possible winnings.

They're Mine

By Edna Wallace Hopper
Many women in my audience ask whether my teeth are my own. It probably is natural to wonder whether a woman in her sixties has retained her teeth. Mine are my own and I'm careful of them. I have always been as diligent in cleaning my teeth as I have been in caring for my skin. I used to use a dentifrice,
a mouth wash
and a deodorant
to sweeten my breath.

Now I am able to obtain all these necessary
guards in a tooth paste called Quindent. The five-in-one dentifice. It has a pleasant, mild
taste, is an effective cleanser, and polisher and, best of all, contains milk of magnesia, which I formerly had to use separately as a mouth wash. This combats the over-acid acids, which are destructive to enamel.

Experts collaborated to produce Quindent. Now you can get it at your local toilet counter. The price is 50 cents for a large tube.

Little Excitement Salient Facts of in New York Over Big Bout Tonight

New York, July 26 (AP)—Outstanding fact of the evening boxing scene in New York tonight is the fact that the fight between Gene Tunney and Tom Heenev, heavyweight champions, will take place at the Madison Square Garden, New York, at 10 o'clock.

Now and then eyes turned expectantly toward the sky and ears picked up at the draw of an airplane which in the distance, in Madison Square Garden an anxious promoter, already perturbed at the possibility of a rain, had been waiting for the fight to be started.

For it was through the air that Gene Tunney, of Greenwich Village, first heavyweight champion, was brought to the city for his fifteen-round bout with Tom Heenev, the gentle New Zealand blacksmith, in the Yankee Stadium, New York, tonight. It was manner of approach from Speculator, N. Y., betting a champion who had defied every other tradition of the ring.

Tex Rickard, the promoter, knew just where he could find the challenger. The finest heavyweight Great Britain has produced since Ruby Robert Fitzsimmons, the splendidly shanked Cornishman who slew giants with his gloved hands, awaiting the call to battle on board the yacht of a friend. There was no flying for him from Fairhaven, his training camp on the Jersey coast.

Around the city, greatest of the country's fight centers, there was little excitement over the impending struggle for the most prized of athletic crowns. The match seemed to have crept unawares upon the citizens without their ever realizing what was happening.

Few Wagers Recorded.
So few were the wagers recorded on the match itself that it was difficult to determine the exact odds.
Bets of 3 to 1 that Tunney would retain his title were mentioned but no one seemed to have seen any money change hands. Greater, by far, was the wagering on the size of the gate and the probable amount of money Tex Rickard seemed destined to lose.

Persons close to Madison Square Garden finances saw little hope that the match would draw more than $100,000 worth of customers into the stadium tonight. At the close of business yesterday the advance sale had picked up considerably, but not enough to boost the treasury much above $500,000. Rickard, banking on a tremendous sale today, continuing right up to fight time, stood firm on his prediction that the battle would draw $1,000,000.

What with expenses running close to $700,000, including a guarantee of $525,000 to Tunney and another of $100,000 to Heenev, a gate of $1,200,000 inclusive of taxes appeared necessary to pull Rickard out of the "red." Out of every dollar pushed through the windows of his box offices, the promoter must turn over to the federal government 25 cents in taxes, the state government 5 cents, and the Yankee Stadium ten cents for rental. All taxes are included in the ticket prices.

Rickard Calls on Dempsey Influenced, probably, by the stolid-ity of his usually avid customers, Rickard today called for assistance from Jack Dempsey, the never-failing box office lure and the man who drew the first—and probably the last—million dollar gate. Although it was probably just the final blast of the hype, the former champion, twice whipped by Tunney, was scheduled to apply for a second license before the New York State Athletic Commission today so that he might coach Heenev to victory tonight.

The weatherman, at least, was on the side of the promoter. Clear, cool weather was the forecast for the day and tonight with no hint of the rain that has spoiled dozens of outdoor shows this summer. The main bout was scheduled to go on at 10
p. m. eastern daylight time.

Most of the apathy shown the contest is attributed by critics to the fact that Tunney, in performance and on paper, appears to outclass the determined but muscle-bound New Zeal-ander. Heenev, they believe, is "made" for the slashing left hand of the champion and the boiling right crosses for which the Anzac appears to have no defense but his chin.

Only once during his American invasion has Heenev, the plodder, displayed a knockout punch. That was the night he disposed of the brittle-chinned Irishman from Boston, Jim Maloney, in 77 seconds of the first round. In ten and fifteen-round battles with Jack Sharkey, Jack Delaney, Johnny Risko and Paulino Izcudua, he failed to score a single knockdown, and none of his opponents ever was in distress. In all these matches just as in this Tom was the underdog in the betting. He has never gone into an American ring a favorite.

Heenev at Big Disadvantage.
Tom will be at a distinct disad-vantage in height and reach to add to the difficulties of a defense that centers chiefly of plodding steadily forward, head and body unprotected, but with both arms swinging.

Against a fighter of that type, Tunney a perfect puncher and the heavyweight division ever has been, is in his element. In addition, the champion can cut aside his boxing occasionally to punch with a freedom he never felt in two bouts with Jack Dempsey. A missed shot against the champion is hardly likely to cause him to falter on the floor, as it did in his Chicago battle with the former champion.

Both champion and challenger will report to the fray in 25 perfect condition as the human physique can attain. Neither has suffered any sort of injury in training. The weighing-in ceremonies were scheduled for 2
p. m. at Madison Square Garden.

Vets Invited To Hear Fight

Athletic Officer Thomas "Tex"
Murray of Kingston Post American Legion recently announced that every World War veteran would be a welcome guest at the Memorial Building, West O'Reilly street, tonight to hear the Tunney-Heenev world's heavyweight championship fight over the radio. A fine time is planned for all who attend.

It is expected by Commander Roy E. Jacob of the local post that the Memorial Building will be crowded early with fight fans. Practically every World War veteran is interested in the fight, which will be broadcast tonight, for Gene Tunney is a comrade of those who saw service.
His picture, which was sent to the Kingston Legionnaires during the reign of Past Commander Conrad J. Heiselman, is exhibited over the inviting fireplace in the Legion community room. He sent the photo to Heiselman, who wrote him a letter wishing him success in his last meeting with Jack Dempsey, for the members of Kingston post. Gene also sent a letter of thanks to the past commander.

The radio at the Legion building is in fine working order. George Davis, the quartermaster, knows his dials and reception is expected to be perfect at the Memorial Building tonight. There are plenty of comfortable chairs at the Legion, but those who arrive first will get the big leather ones, which are most desirable. During the fight refreshments will be served.

Commander Jacob sincerely hopes that every World War veteran in this vicinity whether or not he is a Legionnaire, will take advantage of the enjoyable time awaiting at the Legion tonight.

Police to Play Montgomery.
Sunday afternoon at Montgomery the Schenectady police team will meet the Farmers, formerly the Montgomery A. A. The game is expected to be a fast one as the blue coats plan to score a victory over the Farmers, who were champions of their section in 1927. Lefty Blocksett, formerly with Hartford in the Eastern League and the Yankees here will be one of the notables in the game, while Ted Karia, well known here will be another. The game will get under way at 3 p. m. daylight saving time.

Swift's First Prose
"The Battle of the Books" a satirical work, published in 1707, is Swift's first prose composition. It is his contribution to the famous Bentley and Boyle controversy.

Tagging Major League Bases

(By William J. Chipman)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The Detroit Tigers seem to have solved the problem. The only time to go stalking for Yankee scalps is at the precise moment the young men of Miller Huggins emerge from a railway station. With everybody in the American League, save only Jacob Ruppert, vainly seeking ways and means to halt the Yankee outrage, the humble Tigers stepped to the plate with their own version, and made it the more convincing by rolling the champions of the world in the dust of Navin Field twice in the same afternoon.

The slogan of the Tigers heretoforth will be: "Make the Yankees travel and the league will take care of itself." The champions escaped from Boston at something like six o'clock Tuesday evening after submission of the Red Sox of that city to cruel and inhuman ineptitudes, and apparently intended to continue their misconduct in Detroit. Suspecting that some twenty hours on the Pullmans had affected the champions, the Tigers innocently enough won the first game of a double-header by 3 to 2. With this rare accomplishment so neatly, the home boys became bolder in the second engagement, which they snatched from the leaders by 19 to 7.

The first decision was won by an impertinent rally against George Pip-peras for three runs in the eighth inning. Henry Johnson, Myles Thomas and "Archie" Campbell were treated impartially in the second brawl. The veteran Lil Stoner and Elam Van-Gelder held the champions to four hits in the opener, with Owen Carroll and George Smith sharing the burden in the second clash.

While these unbelievable events were taking place in Detroit, the Athletics were winning two from the White Sox, and simultaneously cutting two games from the lead of the Yankees. As the Mackmen have only four more chances to become this season, it may be that Mr. McGillicuddy still has a chance. By cold figures he is nine games behind the champions this morning.

The A's took the opener yesterday by the disgraceful score of 16 to 0, but appeared themselves more polli-tely by 8 to 7 in the second clash. Old Bullet Joseph Bush was the winning pitcher in the handicap.
The Indians won two games from the Red Sox, 10 to 2 and 15 to 5.
One of the immediate effects was that Douglas Talt, Boston outfielder, mistook himself for a pitcher, and behaved more like one than anybody else who tossed them up for the Red Sox in the two games.

The Browns, noble third placers, removed two contests from the possession of the unsuspecting Senators, one by 13 to 8 and another by 5 to 5 in twelve innings.
Still unconvinced that the Giants are going to land anywhere but on top, John J. McGraw once more put down the Pirates, 6 to 5. Home runs by Fred Lindstrom and "Shanty" Hogan accounted for four New York runs, and more than offset the worth of a similar drive by George Grantham with one on base.

The Cardinals knew they would have trouble losing to the Robins by any ordinary method, so they kicked a pile of eight unearned runs into the ample lap of Big Jim Elliott in the fourth round. Jim showed his appreciation by winning 8 to 1. The Cardinal generosity was committed by Andy High in the form of a spectacular wild throw and an artistic fumble.
The leading St. Louisians lost no ground to the runner-up Cubs, who succeeded in dropping one to the Braves, 3 to 1, in spite of Hack Wilson's twenty-third home run.

Young Ed Brandt, the southpaw, held the Cubs well in check.
Cincinnati dashed off with the first game in Philadelphia, 16 to 5 only to see the famous Phils rise from their graves long enough to take the second, 7 to 6. Donald Hume hit two home runs for the Quakers, bringing his season's total to fifteen.

The narrator reported the ship making a few turns that the words of the Navy could be easily read.

On the return trip, the daylight was fading earlier and the water was the river past Kingston about 4 1/2 miles. The sun shining on the big silver ship which had the appearance of langens in the air was an inspiring sight. Those who viewed the ship as it passed speculated as to its speed. Many were of the Passing Kingston about 8 o'clock in the morning, the ship passed south of Albany an hour later and arrived at Oneida at noon. Returning the ship passed Albany at 3:20 and after cruising over the city in a circle dipped her nose in salute and headed south arriving over this city about an hour later.

Financial and Commercial

New York, July 26 (AP).—In continued selling resistance was apparent in today's stock market when efforts were made to extend the rally begun a few days ago. A combination of factors was marked up to 10 points in the early trading, but operators for the advance had difficulty in maintaining the gains. Several new weak spots developed, particularly in the railroad equipment group.

Call money was again in plentiful supply at the renewal rate of 5 1/2 percent and loans were made as low as 5 in the "outside" market. Time money, commercial paper and bankers' acceptance rates held firm. Uncertainty over what will be shown in the weekly statement on brokers' loans, to be issued after the close of the market, led many traders to take profits, and others to put out new short lines.

The day's business news had a bearish tinge, particularly the omission of the regular dividends on Lima Locomotive and Belding Hemingway. The copper industry reported a marked slowing down in sales last week but this was regarded as temporary. The Marland Oil Company reported another large loss in the first half of the year, although the second quarter made a much more favorable showing than the corresponding period last year.

Gov. Otis Elevator and American Radiator stood out with extreme gains of five points or more. American Beet Sugar and General Gas & Electric "A" moved into new high ground. U. S. Steel climbed more than 2 points and then ran into heavy profit-taking, while Radio and General Motors ran into heavy offerings on very bulge.

Lima Locomotive broke nearly 5 points to a new low at 44.

In the rail group, the strength of Delaware & Hudson and Canadian Pacific was offset by the heaviness of Texas & Pacific.

13 Adopt Bull Moose Platform

Omaha, July 26 (AP).—The 1928 platform of the National Progressive (Bull Moose) party has been drawn up and adopted by a standing vote of a convention audience of 13.

Dr. Henry Hoffman, Omaha, founder of the "rejuvenated" party, keynote of the convention of three delegates and author of the platform, said his platform was "the best one ever written in the United States."

Fifteen persons, including two reporters, heard Hoffman, Omaha store proprietor, attack Wall street and "the international bankers" last night in his keynote speech. On the bankers' shoulders he put the blame for the civil war and the authorship of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

No one stood up when Dr. Hoffman called for a rising vote of approval to adopt his platform. But he said "it makes no difference" and declared it adopted.

Two registered delegates remained for the convention last night, the third, J. H. Crumb of the Old Soldiers' Home at Leavenworth, Kan., having gone home. Mrs. L. B. Berenely of Omaha, and a man identified only as Smith, remained.

Sessions were held in the rear of Dr. Hoffman's store, and Mrs. Berenely, although busy on wash day, found time to attend.

Local Death Record

Charles Conine of Newburgh died at St. Luke's Hospital there Monday, July 23, following an illness of many months. Surviving him, besides his wife, Mary, are four daughters, Edna, Frances, Estelle and Roberta; also one son, Arthur. Mr. Conine was formerly of Plattkill, but had lived in Newburgh the past few years.

Cole T. Ellsworth of 71 Hurley avenue died Wednesday, July 25. For a number of years previous to coming to Kingston with his family several years ago he resided in Hurley and was engaged in farming. He made many friends in this city. Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Amanda Giebers of New York city. Funeral services at chapel of W. N. Conner, 302 Fair street, Saturday, July 28, at 2 p. m. Interment in the Hurley cemetery.

The Rev. Andrew B. Imrie, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Cairo, died at his home in that village about 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, after several weeks of illness. The Rev. Mr. Imrie came to this country from Scotland. He had been pastor of the Cairo Church for the past five years. He was formerly stationed in Michigan. The deceased was held in high esteem by all in the community. His wife, one daughter and five sons survive.

Calvin Hicks of 3 East Union street died suddenly Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock from a heart attack at the home of his brother, Floyd Hicks, 7 East Pierpont street, where he had been visiting. It is believed that being overcome with the heat about two weeks ago weakened Mr. Hicks' heart. Surviving are one sister, Mrs. John Riker, and two brothers, Floyd and James Hicks, all of this city. Funeral from the parlors of Jensen & Perry, 93 Broadway, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in the family plot in Montrose cemetery.

Smith Comments On Owen's Shift

Governor Declares That Former Senator In 1924 Had Sought the Support of the Tammany Delegates.

Albany, N. Y., July 26 (AP).—Governor Smith lost no time today in making vigorous comment on the announcement of Robert L. Owen, former Democratic Senator from Oklahoma, that he would not support Smith because of his prohibition views and his alliance with Tammany Hall in a formal statement.

"His hostility to Tammany Hall must have grown up in his heart in the last four years," Smith said in his statement. "In 1924 he was not only willing to accept its support, but quite anxious to get it."

Owen announced that he was bolting the party on Governor Smith's account when interviewed yesterday by newspapermen at the hotel suite in New Hampshire, who is in charge of Republican campaign activities in the east.

At the outset of his daily press conference today, Governor Smith was asked if he had any comment to make on Owen's announcement.

"You can let your pencils rest a minute," Smith told the reporters. "I have a statement covering this."

Calling for mimeographed copies of his comments on Owen's declaration, the Democratic nominee read it aloud slowly then had them distributed.

"Naturally I am sorry to see Senator Owen leave the Democratic party because of my nomination," the statement started out. "However, he is a free American citizen and has the right to choose the party that best suits his ideas."

"My greatest regret comes from one of the reasons advanced because it compels me to question his sincerity."

Society Notes

Aspen-Van Auker.
 Milton H. Aspen of Haverstraw and Miss Kathleen Van Auker of 47 Janet street were married July 21 by the Rev. Dr. Lucas Boeve, pastor of the First Dutch Church.

Simons-Holmes.
 The marriage of Miss Gertrude M. Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Holmes of Irvington, to the Rev. Victor Simons, pastor of the First Reformed Church, took place at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday afternoon, June 30. Roses, palms and ferns decorated the home. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. J. Van Houten, pastor of the First Reformed Church of Irvington. A reception followed at the Robert T. Treating Hotel. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by a college classmate, Mrs. Harold McLaughlin of Irvington. The best man was John Barrett of Scotch Plains. Mrs. C. E. Morelock played the wedding march and accompanied Miss Lydia Creighton of East Orange, who sang "O Promise Me" and "O Perfect Love." The bride wore a gown of lace over white tulle. Her lace veil was arranged in cap effect, caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore a gown of orchid georgette with a picture hat to match. Her bouquet was of orchid sweet peas. Mrs. Holmes wore a gown of flowered chiffon over lace. The groom's mother was seated in printed crepe. The bride is a graduate of Irvington High School and Wellesley College. The groom is a graduate of Irvington High School, Rutgers College and New Brunswick Theological Seminary. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Simons was an instructor of Greek at Rutgers three years while attending the seminary. The Rev. and Mrs. Simons have the best wishes from their friends in New Paltz as well as Gardiner.

How Lighting Rate Affects Kingston

The following statement is made by local officials of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Company:

The new Kingston rate schedule for commercial lighting was approved by the Public Service Commission by its order dated July 11, 1928.

The company serves 1,319 commercial lighting customers in Kingston; 641 of these take service on a monthly basis, and 678 take service on a yearly basis.

The new schedule will reduce the rate by 1 cent per kilowatt hour for all the 641 monthly customers. The bills of 456 of the yearly customers are neither increased nor decreased. The remaining 22 yearly customers are increased.

Twelve of the 22 customers who are increased by the new schedule are members of the Uptown Business Men's Association.

The average rate paid by the 22 customers affected during the past 12 months was 4 1/2 cents per kilowatt hour. The average rate under the new schedule, if it had been in effect during the past 12 months, would be 4 1/2-3 cents per kilowatt hour.

Market for Fruits and Vegetables

New York, July 26 (AP).—(State Department Agriculture and Markets.)

Upstate New York green peas were in heavier receipt today and values slumped in a dull market. Trading was generally low. Early morning business was at $1.25 @ $2 per bushel basket. At the close, however, sales ranged from 50c @ $1.25.

Green pea shipments for the previous seven days for the whole country totaled 187 cars, of which New York state furnished 166.

Arrival of Hudson valley sour cherries were limited. Good quality large fruit found a moderate outlet but ordinary and small received little attention. Four-quart baskets of red sour cherries peddled out at 60c @ 90cents. Blacks realized from 8

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

By The Associated Press.

New York. Tom Webster of London, who is paid $125,000 a year for cartoons, is here to cover the first. His drawings will be shown in a radio.

Albany, N. Y. Thacker is a lot time about noon time in China. Friday of those fellows accustomed to getting the situation in hand are not disappointed by an ex-buddy. From Mariner came the following cable to Turner. "We have covered the Anzac money here and looking for more. Give him the whole works. (L. C. C.)"

New York. David Belasco feels like 21, so what difference does his age make on his birthday; he is 69, 70 or 71, he doesn't know which. "As time goes on," he says, "I grow fonder of work and increase my capacity for it. I find life very beautiful."

New York. John R. Voorhis, president of the board of elections, who will be 59 tomorrow, finds one great objection in modern mothers' dereliction. He says that too often mother is out playing golf, taking tea or traveling abroad and sees her child.

Only once or twice a day, perhaps not for weeks or months.

South. Hatley Falls, Mass.—One boy and a thousand beautiful girls! Ralph Ross, 10, son of a member of the faculty, is to study at Mount Holyoke College next year, taking special courses in preparation for Harvard.

Minneapolis, N. D.—The loss of our Navy to Minnawabon Harcan, Secretary Winthrop has been adopted by the Navy. His new name means ocean chief.

Pittsford, Mass.—The Rev. Dr. Maurice A. Levy, Baptist, is president of the Chamber of Commerce.

New York. Federal Judge William H. Atwell of Dallas, who is sitting here, notes a difference between New York and his home state. "Down in Texas," he remarked in court, "the statements of arresting officers are accepted as the truth, and this is the first time I have ever observed testimony of the police ignored." The remark was occasioned by the acquittal of a man accused of operating a still. In another case the judge imposed the maximum penalty, a fine of $500, for possession of a quart of whiskey.

London.—The possessor of a medal of honor from the United States Congress is now commodore of the Cunard fleet—Captain Sir Arthur Heston, who was commander of the steamship Carpathia when the Titanic's survivors were rescued.

Bayhead, N. J.—Mrs. Ruth Adams is convinced that her new car is a good one although she was almost drowned during her first trip. She backed it into 20 feet of the Atlantic ocean. The man who delivered the car dived and rescued her. The car was pulled out and then ran on its own power.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Uncle Sam has a couple of horses to sell, but fears before a purchaser appears they will eat more than the liquor-laden hay they were pulling when confiscated. The last time horses that pulled contraband were offered for sale there were no bidders.

Annual Clambake At Clintondale

Owing to the construction of a new cold storage plant, the Clinton-dale Cooperative Association is unable to hold its annual clambake this year.

In its stead, the Ladies' Circle of the Friends' Church has decided to hold a bake so that Clintondale will continue famous for clambakes. This bake will be a twin of former ones, put on by the same chefs as in previous years, and they can see no reason why this bake will not hold its own with the famous bakes of the past. Clintondale people want to hold their fame and not get out of practice. They have lots of fun during the days of preparation and in spite of the hard work they seem to think they cannot dispense with the occasion. Then, too, they know how the people of the surrounding communities enjoy their dinner and recreation during the evening.

At this time there will be fancy work, canned fruits and preserves, all sizes, styles and colors of aprons, ice cream and soft drinks, potted plants for sale, and a parcel post booth to amuse the youngsters.

The date will be August 24, at 6 and 8 p. m., daylight saving time. The place will be Community Hall, Clintondale.

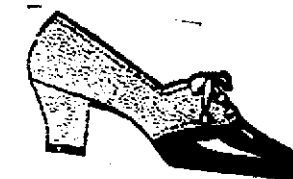

It is none too soon to get busy and order tickets because of a limited seating capacity. Tickets may be procured of Mr. Borland at Clintondale Fruit Growers' Association, or of Mrs. Kate Covert, chairman of committee, Clintondale.

Thought's Ownership. Thought is the property of him who can entertain it, and of him who can adequately place it.—Emerson.

GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator

Just an ordinary grapefruit, after a brief stay in a General Electric Refrigerator, becomes a real treat! Just a simple salad has a festive air when it is chilled to the proper point of crispness! In fact, ordinary meals assume somewhat the nature of a function when thorough chilling has given food new flavor.

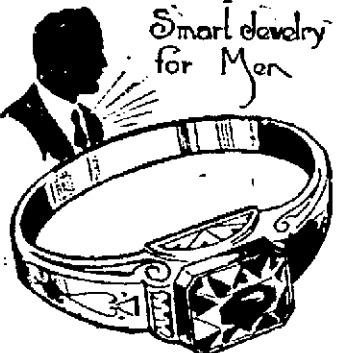

And the convenience of having a General Electric Refrigerator! No cleaning out of clogged drain-pipes. Just a quiet machine with all its moving parts enclosed in one hermetically sealed steel casing. It doesn't even need oiling. This is the refrigerator for the home of today....and for the future.

The range of models and prices is wide. Come in. Make close comparisons between these refrigerators and all others. Your interest will be welcome, your questions will gladly be answered.
